

Please reject NAB's petition. It is in no one's interest to try to curtail the technology that has brought us satellite radio. One would think that by now, that lobbyists would realize that technological progress cannot be stopped and especially not for selfish purposes.